A friend in need

I thought Marco had always been the top of the class in science he was never ~~being~~ a big-head. ~~He~~ He got on well with his classmate. However Monday was stress for everyone Marco spent the whole morning at the laboratory trying to make his new formula work. "You're so good at it this is your element. You can do it!", said his classmate. "Unbelievable!" Marco groaned ~~again~~. At last, he was so nervous that he decided to take a break and get some fresh ~~at~~ air. On his way out he met Alice. He showed her his notes. "Just leave it and do something else", suggested Alice. "This is my ~~family~~ formula for new medicine, it's important.", replied Marco irritated. He rushed out before completely falling out with Alice.

Marco was sitting on a bench looking at his notes when he heard someone from behind. "Add CO_2 instead of ~~H_2O~~ H_2O ", said a stranger. "Oh! This is fantastic," yelled Marco. "I can't wait to try this at the lab. Would you like to join me?", asked Marco. "Absolutely!", answered the guy.

Marco ~~finished~~ made the ends with the stranger, whose name was ~~Paul~~ Paul and they created their scientist team.
