A couple of months ago I attended a park ~~near~~ near my home. It had been recently built, so I was excited to go.

When entering, I was struck by a strong smell of spring forest, when flowers are in bloom and trees are getting covered with fresh green leaves. Then it suddenly started smelling rainwater. A crystalline clear key opened to flow next to the path. Some time later I realised that I was ~~admiring~~ birds singing. What is curious, none of those birds had I heard before. It is strange how many details the park is associated with.

As for me, this park was different from others. The main distinctive feature of the park was that there were some interesting, philosophic and even strange statements, hidden all over the place. For example, on the trunk of a tree was a saying, "To all the quaint". Also somewhere sunlight did blend in with waterdrops and formed different phrases on the shades.

Even though I liked the park, I would change something in ~~the~~ it park. For instance, it would be better to place some benches by the pathway. Although I have perfect seesight, light would make it easier to move at night.

In conclusion, the park is full of unique places of interest, and its nature makes you forget all the troubles, so it is definitely worth attending.

There are some parks in and near my city. They are different from one another. In my essay I would like to tell you about my favourite park one.

Most teenagers prefer to visit amusement parks, there are two such parks in my hometown. Personally, I do not enjoy spending time there, I would rather be in some quiet place. There is the National park near my city. It contains rare animal species of animals. Unfortunately, it is forbidden to visit it, but there are some recreation areas, ~~where~~ ^{where} people can walk, ride a bicycle, ski or build small resorts. I enjoy spending time there just walking and smelling trees. Moreover, ~~so~~ I can hear birds singing, knocking on the tree or see a rare bird very high in the sky.

Unfortunately, recreation areas of the park are becoming more polluted from year to year. In my opinion, the government should make ~~at~~ the owners of the resorts to clean territory ~~for~~ every month, take ~~taxes~~ higher taxes if they refuse to doing, ~~it~~ or break ecological laws. Moreover, citizens of nearby cities should take part in different events, which are organized for protection of our National park. They should go to recreation area and clean them, collect rubbish, etc.

In conclusion I would like to say that National park is a quaint, unique place. I love walking in the shade of trees and breathe fresh air. You should visit that park one day.

There are a lot of parks in my home^{sp}city but the one I like the most is Pribyrezhnyi park. This place is really heartwarming for me because I used to spend really much time there walking around, playing with friends and staring at the Volga river flowing by. The air here is filled with the smell of pine trees which is ^{or} making soul happy. You can hear absolutely everything you want just passing by this place ^{or} Sound of the wind blends in with slow, quiet water, even the noise of squirrels can be heard if you are lucky enough.

Looking from the first sight you won't notice anything different from every other park ^{or} woods but if you spend there two or three hours the real beauty will be opened to you. Pribyrezhnyi is surprisingly unique as true artists say they can define more than ten different shades of green in the leaves which is really mindblowing to me.

The thing is that some people just can't understand the whole magic this park ^{or} provides and treat it badly. Specially for them I would suggest to put a number of trash bins on the territory for the convenience.

As you can see, I really love this park and try to help it stay clean and beautiful for everyone.

WRITING

The name of the park which I like to visit is "Gorky Park". It has pretty good location. It's placed near the large hotel and shopping centre called Korston.

To be honest, I haven't visited it for a long time and I don't know if it has some changes, but the park still reminds me about my childhood. The smell of different food and sweets, fresh grass, noises of people who are having fun and sound of water fountains — all it makes me to come back to my memories.

This park is very popular for its entertainment. To my personal opinion, it's the best place to go out with children, because it's like to heaven for them. Gorky park provides various cafes and restaurants (with traditional tatar food too), playgrounds and it even has a "sky park" (the place where you can climb trees). You can rent a bike there as well. However, I think, the best ^{thing about} ~~part of~~ this park is that you can see cute squirrels there and even feed them. So, no one will be bored there!

In my opinion, the park has disadvantages as well. First of all, there are always lots of people and sometimes it's difficult to walk there and have a quality time with your relatives or friends. Moreover, some benches and other things are ~~troublingly~~ ^{troublingly} bad and some of them should be replaced or be repaired.

Despite all of this, I enjoy visiting of this place and I hope it'll become even better place in the future. One day, I want to return there with my own children and show them places where I spent most of the time when I was little.

To begin with, my favourite park ^{and giant} is Gagarin's Park situated in Samara. Its territory is rather huge. Actually, there are so many feelings associated with the park. After entering the park the loud music comes to your ears so you can not escape this sounds. Also you can hear the laugh of other visitors to the park as there are so many entertaining places. As for smells, you can find various cafés here that is why the smell of ready-coffee or even barbecue can not be missed.

cop. This park ^{can not be blended in} ~~is different~~ from others for amazing friendly atmosphere and its natural beauty. It is the most popular park among families where a members may find something special to them. Besides this, a lot of high trees rising to the sky are the main part of this park. In summer you may walk or sit under the shades of them.

lex. ~~As for~~ Personally, I think this park can be improved perfectly. Lots people leave rubbish there on the roads or grass so it could be a good idea to include people in recycling schemes to make the park cleaner. Apart from this, some of restaurants should be closed as they make the park just a complex of different places to eat.

To ~~sum~~ sum up, Gagarin's park is a wonderful sight to visit. You are welcome to come here and be thrilled by it.

Part 3.

The place of my childhood.

I'm sure everyone has own place where he likes to be in real life or even return to it in his thoughts. As for me, my favourite site is Gorky Park in Kazan, Russia. I can name countless number of reasons for it.

First of all, Gorky Park is situated in the centre of the city so it can be reached by any transport. As for its size, it's really spacious! Although it's mostly crowded as the space is in abundance you can ^{lex 1e} feel free. When you just enter it you hear cheerful laughter, noise of people talks, pleasant music and feel the mouth-watering smells from vans selling snacks, hot pop-corn, sugary drinks. Moreover, you'll never be bored as the park offers activities for every age. For example, ^{le} in summer you can walk on your own, use sport facilities on the sport grounds, play with your kids, rent a bicycle. This park also has a forest! ^{le} In autumn you're welcome to observe diverse shades of its leaves, in winter — try skiing and skating.

Everything is quite satisfactory but I'd recommend that there should be more cultural events. Anyway, this park ~~reminds~~ brings back my sweet childhood memories and gives me a yearning for new experiences. All in all, it's a quaint park that definitely worths visiting. 227 gr

My favourite park is located at the edge of my native town. It is quite popular among tourists. When I travel to other places I always recall the very smell of a bright green grass and sp beautiful flowers. I feel as if I hear some noises of the park: a noise of children playing, laughter, twitting or singing of birds, a noise of young men and women. Shades in the park also create a special atmosphere.

I deem this park is unique. It is different from the other ones. I fall in awe with the scenery and the huge birch trees every time I go by. This view makes the ~~the~~ visitor's mood better. The park also has some other features. For example, annual running competitions start from there.

However, none is perfect. There are some things that need to be improved. Personally, I think that ~~there~~ an entrance, which is more suitable for disabled people, is necessary. A lake in the centre of the park ~~also~~ should be cleaned or even saved because now it becomes unnaturally green in the summer. And the last problem is that some citizens of my town tend to throw a rubbish in the park. ^{It should be immediately collected.} Despite some difficulties we can face, all of these problems should be solved.

* It should be immediately collected.

There are a lot of green beautiful parks in Kazan. But there is one that I visit more often because it is my favourite park in Kazan. It is Gorky's park, which is named in honour of famous Russian writer Maksim Gorky. It is located in the centre of Kazan.

When I think about the park, I always memorize it in the autumn. The smell of wet grass and wet ground after the raining, soft midday lights and charming songs of birds. Some cheerful children's voices in the background. The trees have different shades of leaves. Different colours of them on the background softly blend in some quiet colours.

The thing I like most in that park is that there are a lot of sports facilities, children playgrounds and even cafes and restaurants, while the other parks in Kazan have less sports equipment or eating places. Also, I consider that it is the biggest park in Kazan.

As for me, some improvements could be done in that park. Firstly, there is not enough light in the park during the night and evening. Walking in the dark sometimes might be scary. Secondly, I would like to see more events in that park. There are a lot of scenes and other places to perform. But I've never seen anything like that there.

PART 3

In my childhood I've been visiting the local ~~park~~ ^{park} almost every week. At that time I lived in Leninogorsk in Tatarstan Republic, therefore the nature in the park was always filled with life and energy unlike the nature in the north.

In my opinion, the beauty of nature is different for everyone. As for me, I can't help but be in love with nature. Furthermore, I had the same sense of beauty as a child. Because of this I often visited the park in the morning and that is why my childhood memories are full of beautiful songs of birds, rustling leaves and bushes, the stream of water running down the hill. Moreover, I'll never forget the of trees after the rain. Wet leaves and a sweet smell of tree sap are always bringing my memories back. What is more, the pathway through the forest was so perfectly blended in with nature that sometimes it wasn't possible to tell that it was made artificially at all. ~~Especially~~ Especially that was the case for the paths that were covered by the shades of old and sturdy trees right next to a small forest river.

All in all, this place is very important for me since it's where I've spent my childhood. The sole problem I can remember is the lack of places to rest, so I would've placed some benches if I was given an opportunity.

In my city there are a variety of parks. But the small park near my house is the best one. I can't feel fat safety in the crowd. So in this park you can enjoy your loneliness. It have some differences from other parks as there you will not hear the noises an the haste of polluted city life, there you will enjoy country peace in silence. Nature here is breathtaking because there are a lot of types of the trees and flowers. Also there is a small lake in the center of the park. Lake is full of crystal and clear blue water with the sea coast. There you can organize a picnic with your friends or family. A smell of fresh grass and of the lake's water and a sound of birds and frogs singing always reminds me about this amazing place. I like to spend my free time there in summer, when the weather is it is warm and sunny outside. I enjoy walking with my dog, doing homework and listening to music in this park. It can be improved by adding a playground for dogs and some facilities for doing homework like table or something like that.

In this park, you can sit in the shade of the trees, you will understand that you are happy.

PART 1. READING COMPREHENSION. TIME: 30 minutes. Maximum: 20 points.

TASK 1. Read the article and put the sentences A-F in the right place.

THE WETTEST SUMMER SINCE 1766

In summer 2007 England and Wales experienced some of the wettest weather and worst floods since 1766, the date when weather records began. 1) F Almost 50,000 houses and just under 7,000 businesses were flooded. This effect extended to the daily lives of everyone in these areas as transport, schools, power and water supplies were all seriously affected.

The problem seems to be that the infrastructures in England and Wales are not prepared for sudden downpours.

2) A This can lead to flooding, the location of which is extremely difficult to predict.

The situation would have been much worse if the UK's Environment Agency had not been well prepared. Flood warnings were sent out to thousands of businesses and homes. 3) E However, these record-breaking floods still caused a huge amount of damage and personal loss for thousands of people. 4) C Many of those whose homes were saved still lost personal possessions that cannot be replaced. The Environment Agency continues to support these victims of the floods.

Part of the successful damage limitation strategy that prevented the effects of the flooding being any worse than they were, was the way that different organisations worked together. 5) B

Some examples of the groups who participated in the damage limitation activity were the Met office (weather forecasters); the police (who used their control centres for communication); the fire service (who used equipment to help people); the Royal Air Force (who used helicopters to rescue people from the most dangerous areas); and the local councils (who helped place sand bags in vulnerable areas as well as clean up afterwards).

Thus the work that was put into preparing for the floods was instrumental in preventing a worse situation. 6)

A) When a large amount of rain comes in a short time, drains and rivers cannot cope with the volume of water.

B) This joined-up approach was part of a carefully planned strategy to cope with such flooding.

C) There were almost 100 deaths caused by the floods and many people were moved into temporary accommodation, having been forced to leave their homes.

D) Furthermore, each time that flooding such as this occurs, the areas that are most at risk become better prepared for the next time it could happen.

E) Many people managed to leave danger areas as a result of these warnings and travel to safer places.

F) There were several periods of very heavy rainfall which resulted in the worst flooding in living memory.

TASK 2. Read the poem and put the words in the right place.

Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of 12) trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high 13) career, and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is as 14) fatigue as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture 15) fortunes of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with dark imaginings. Many fears are born of 16) summers and loneliness.

Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the 17) universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a 18) right to be here.

And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be. And whatever your labors and 19) aspirations in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace in your soul.

Task 5. Fill in the gaps with one suitable word.

A dog and a pig 36) were once together on board of a vessel 37) that was bound on a long voyage. They soon became very good friends and used to eat 38) out of the same dish. But there was one thing that occasionally spoiled their friendship for a 39) long time. The dog had a comfortable kennel to sleep in, while the unfortunate pig had to spend the night on the cold deck. So the pig made 40) in habit of getting into the kennel at dusk. If he got in 41) before the dog, he 42) could not be turned out; but if the dog got in 43) first, the pig had to spend the night on deck as before.

One night when the weather was very cold and wet, the pig thought he 44) might make for the kennel in good time, so 45) has to ensure having a comfortable bed. He found, however, 46) to his disgust, that the - 47) second thought had occurred to the dog, who was already lying fast asleep in the kennel. So he 48) took his wits to work, and formed a plan. He took the dish which they ate their meals out of, and placed 49) it near the kennel; he then turned his back to the dog and made a noise as if he were eating. This woke the dog up. He listened for a minute or two, and then, as he felt hungry, thought he would come out and share the supper. The pig 50) has once rushed into the kennel, and left his friend outside with the empty dish.

Task 6. Solve the given riddles. The first letter is given.

- 51) If you've got me, you want to share me; if you share me, you haven't kept me. What am I? (a snack....)
- 52) What can travel all around the world without leaving its corner? (a suitcase)
- 53) What has a head and a tail but no body? (a carrot....)
- 54) If you drop me I'm sure to crack, but give me a smile and I'll always smile back. What am I? (a mirror....)

There is that one park that gathers the most of locals. There is a lot to tell ab a park in my home town Saransk.

The main difference from other parks is that it's named after a famous Russian wr Alexander Pushkin. The nature blends in with the entertainment for people of all ages. It attracts children and youth with mini games while elders can watch a concert or play chess and checkers in a quiet shady zone next to fountains and a perfect smell of trees and grass on a breezy sum day. It is awesome how a small territory can fit so many attractive things!

The architecture inside combines multiple genres of national folklore. It's all quaint an placed all around the territory. The amount of trees, fountains and sculptures makes it look like a magical place.

Sure, it is open for people but I don't see the reason to ban bikes. Government can create a special bike lane as it is made in most european parks. For a better experience they can organise movie nights and boat shows on lake Saranka so people could be entertained at late eveni as well.

Some might say all parks look the same, especially in Russia. But if you decided to travel around the country I'm sure you will find the one that would stand out.

"Park that I like visiting"

I would like to make a description of my favorite park that I really like visiting.

The park is located ~~in~~ in my home town, that is why I get to visit it pretty often. There is a river in this park as well as lots of trees. The nature is legitimately gorgeous here! lex

Happy children's noises and the pleasant lex mild smell of the air come to my mind every time I think about this wonderful place.

My favorite park can't be compared to any other parks because of extremely picturesque nature you can observe here. Лист № 2 huge old trees, that look like skyscrapers, create lots of shades, which blend in and fill separate areas, so that people can hide from the sun and rest there. Also there is a beautiful river that reflects the sun and shines like a golden nugget.

However, everything has its pros and cons, so does the park. If I could improve it, I would build more places of entertainment here, because the park does not have many of those for the time being.

I and my friends really like this park and spend a lot of our time there ~~just having fun and this park~~ This place is one of greatest sights of my town!

PART 3

I live in the cultural capital of Russia. It's a well-known fact that there're not only architectural sights in my city, but beautiful parks too. Almost all of them you can find in suburbs of St. Petersburg. My home's situated in one of the small towns nearby the second largest park in Europe Pavlovsky park.

In the time I'm entering the park I can smell blossomy trees if it's spring, honey and sweet flowers if it's summer or freshness of snow if it's winter. The park's different in every season. It's usually crowded ^{on weekends} here because of many tourists, so besides the singing of birds I can hear the voices. All the parks of St. Petersburg are of strict and classical style, but this park's an exception. Admiring white bush and scarlett roses I usually stop ~~to~~ and watch the gorgeous monuments and buildings. ~~This park with its palace was a residence of the Emperor's family.~~ It combines nature and history, so it differs from other parks.

Part 3

Gr. I like visiting the park near my house. I feel better when I am walking along the paths there. It is the place where I can rest.

Summer is the best time to visit this park. All trees and flowers are in blossom. You can see roses, green grass, fresh air and this special smell of summer. The sun shine and children with their parents and grandparents spend a whole of time playing and horsing around. You can hear laughter and cry of children, singing of birds and listen to conversations of people. These noises blend in and it seems that you hear a loud crowd. I can't imagine my favourite park without these sounds and smell. Besides, you can see a lot of kinds of flowers and trees there. They are in different colours: blue, red, pink, yellow and all shades of green.

This park is special for me. It is different from other parks. I spent a lot of time there playing with my parents and friends. I think the park can be improved. People should clean the paths of the park and plant more trees.

Parks are important because people can be happy there.

Part 3.

Falling for St. Petersburg.

I didn't use to enjoy walks until my opinion changed after visiting the "Winter Garden" in our northern capital and I'm going to tell you why.

It was a couple of years ago when my family and I firstly came there. We decided to one day to observe the beautiful scenes of "Winter Garden". The thing, which captured me was the size of the park. It definitely differed from other ones I had seen before. The greatness and solemnity were signifying about weight of past centuries. High massive trees were hiding the sun, only letting some light in and making long dark shades. There were fountains and sculptures in those shades, glancing at us with suspicious smiles. All around the park we heard the enchanting singing of birds and laughing of water. I still remember the choking smell of summer, sugar and roses. Nothing dares to compare with it even now.

The park is divided into areas with maps tablets pointing the way directions. There are a camp cafe for ones, who would like to take a break and have lunch in the peaceful, quaint atmosphere.

To cut the long story short, my deep affection and passion to this historical monument became you to see it with your own eyes, unless you are with children. The unfortunate thing is that they can easily get tired and gain stress, because there is a huge lack in sitting accommodation, which waits for improvement.
