YoungRussia.RU

Young Russia (www.youngrussia.ru) - was launched in 2015. It is one of the most popular websites in the Internet. Its aim is promotion sports in Russia, make sports activities more popular in community today. I found out this website in 2016, when our coach ^sadvised it to us, when we were at the swimming camp.

This website has many interesting features, for example: forums, chat rooms, groups. You can create your own profile and become one of the million users. The community of this website is tight-knit and friendly.

YoungRussia.ru has pros and cons. One of the main advantages is that you can get quickly the answer to your question. Also, there are a great number of blogs. Sometimes their authors are famous athletes, where you can share knowledge with others or describe your own experience. However, this site has disadvantages.

Firstly, there is too much advertising, which is really annoying. The main disadvantage is lack of censorship. You can find, read and get thousands of rude answers.

Generally, this website makes a good and positive impression. You can find the many useful and helpful things, improve your skills, find new friends, there are many places, where you can discuss.

I would recommend this website to young sportsmen and their ~~co~~parents, because this site ~~helps~~ can help them on the beginning of their athletes careers, ^{give} give them useful lifehacks, which will be helpful, when they will take part in competitions.

All in all, this website has both advantages and disadvantages. I believe that sometimes pros outweigh the cons and sometimes not.

Travel for pleasure.

Recently, I have visited a widely used website which is aimed to help foreigners find an accommodation during the trips. The website seemed worth visiting to me, so I would like to give a review on it.

The website is known as "Coach surfing". The main menu of the site is easy to be used. It is contain consist of numerous pages like such as "Trips", "Recommendations", "Friends" and many others. If you want to find a place to live, you should click on "Trips" page and the website will quickly search for the most suitable variant. If you have never used the website before a friendly electronic assistant will help you at any time. However, if you have used the app earlier, all your previous stays could be seen in "Friends" page. The user can either find the flat or house to ~~stay~~ ^{stay} in or invite other tourists to visit his/her house.

Among other websites I have visited this one has the largest number of accommodation all over the world. The website is translated into thirty languages and has more than 30 thousand users and recommendations daily. The site is claimed to have a high rate of safety for user's personal data.

The purpose of this website is not only to help travellers find a bed for a couple of nights, but also bring people of all nations together. If you are a frequent traveller, I would gladly recommend

A well-known current blog "Teenager" has already got over five million followers. Its audience mostly consists of young people who share their problems and give advice.

Although I set up to following this blog only a few months ago, in my opinion, it has been really helpful. Loads of articles such as "being self-confident" or "a goal settled" gave me, beside the positive energy, big support.

The blog's author, Michael Conn, had always been misunderstood by his mates who were absolutely uninterested in his problems. They bullied him for his odd character and called him freaky. Conn suffered from the humiliation and swore to himself that he would never let anyone bully others.

After finishing the university, being a specialised webmaster Michael came up with the idea of creating a so-called "help centre" which later got his real name "Teenager". Conn was incredibly astonished by the amount of people with the same problems: threats, bullying misbehaviour were still common in the modern world. But now Michael could help them and from then on he began to do the main job of his life.

Why am I telling you that? Because I want to show you that only such great people as Michael Conn can attract the teenagers' attention from all over the world. By "great" I mean sincere, strong and careful. He did not give up as a child and nor will he.

In conclusion I want to say: let us be humans, not beasts; let there be friends, not freaks!

lex. This blog was created five years ago, by the best Italian cooker of 2014 and it is still popular. By the way, this blog will be helpful for everyone, even those who cannot cook well.

sp. This new blog can teach you how to cook plenty varieties of dishes, such as: how to make ice cream at home or how to cook healthy burger without gluten. The chef of this community makes live translation once a week and tell the audience a lot of secrets.

Today I would like to review one of the most popular websites of them all... wikipedia!

This handy encyclopedia can assist you with a huge variety of your everyday routine. Crucial information for your school project, a recipe for a mouth-watering dish to impress your employer with your exceptional cooking skills, or an interesting passage to have a beneficial read for the evening - it is all there! And all of that is for free due to all ~~altru~~ ^{exp.} truly altruistic people working on improving wikipedia on initiative alone! The only downsides of this website I can barely think of are quite minor: little typos and rare broken links. However, many pages are patched up daily, so there is basically nothing to complain about.

In conclusion, I give you all my praise for this superb website and advise you to spare a dollar to assist the organisation and community behind it. Wikipedia's contribution to our society is undeniably enormous and the amount of work put into it is staggering so if you really want to help wikipedia, then consider editing its existing pages and creating brand-new ones. Thanks for your attention, we hope to see you coming back for more hot reviews from our student magazine!

Part 4.

There are various blogs and websites nowadays. I think that almost everyone is able to create a personal blog where he or she may share his or her opinion and experience in something if she or he want so.

Speaking about me, I don't have my own website or blog, but I follow plenty of other people's blogs on social medias. Nevertheless, I have one favourite blog and I would like to write a review of it.

A review of Ruru's blog.

Ruru is a popular twitter blogger among fans of a certain genre of music. Ruru has about eight thousand followers that always react to her posts. Her posts include reactions to different events that happen in the world, replies to her follower's posts and expression of her emotions, which is my favourite part, to be honest. Ruru is not afraid of expressing how she feels and what she thinks and that's why her blog inspires people to love themselves. Speaking about statistics, her posts usually get approximately 1,5 thousand likes and about 100 replies retweets. There are many replies to her tweets which she tries to answer too.

In conclusion, I would like to say that Ruru's twitter blog has its own cozy atmosphere and influence on people.

On a scale 1-5 Ruru's blog is surely 5!

Please for my next review!
