Task 4.1

The Great waterfall "Krasavitsa" in Abkhazia

It is one of the World's most beautiful Places.

There was a legend about a pretty Slavic girl that loved spending time near it, and after her death, people called the waterfall pretty, but in another language after her.

The view is fascinating, fog hugs the water, and a little higher we can see the mountains.

Whenever I see photos of this place I feel extremely calm and happy.

And the rules there are simple, to be quiet, don't step near the cliff, and don't communicate with animals.

I hope you will really enjoy it when you visit this country. Because everything there is magical.

TASK 4.2

BEHIND THE STAGE

Hello! I'm Jane Buckley. And I would like to tell you about what it feels to be a famous ballet dancer.

Every week I have minimum two performances or giving lessons. Everyday I work really hard to the state of exhaustion. But everytime on stage, I feel sincere happiness.

To be honest, I love the feeling of being loved with other people because I know, I deserve it.

I'm happy like a child in a candy store, knowing that I'm getting paid enough to take care of myself and fulfill my wishes. I'm watching my students with a warm smile everytime, they are doing fuetes and other things.

And I'm proud with them, and at myself.

But not everything is sunshine and good. Most of people don't even have a clue of what is going on in professional ballet. We are overworking, overthinking and we, proff professionals, have really bad health. That's exactly the dark side of ballet. And here we bring jealousy, gossip and pain.

But I guess every sport or hobby has advantages and ~~the~~ disadvantages. So don't be afraid of the ~~dark~~ side ~~dark~~side. Even after the most dark night, there is the brightest sunrise.

A REVIEW ON THE "MARRY" WATERFALL - ?

"MARRY" waterfall, ~~was~~ the one I visited last week, is located in Nebraska, US.<sup>13</sup>

The views I witnessed while visiting it were nothing but pieces of art: clear water pouring down and going along the forest with the certain sound which represented the relax itself.<sup>44/50</sup>

Throughout the trip I obtained incredibly amazing emotions. I ~~felt~~ felt as if I got to heaven.<sup>60</sup>

With no doubts, visiting such a place requires keeping some rules. As an instance, visitors are forbidden to jump into the water for it might be dangerous for their lives. As well as this,<sup>100</sup> they are not allowed to get too close to the stones.<sup>105</sup> (111)

THE EXPERIENCE OF BEING A BALLET DANCER

Someone may not have a clue what it is to witness a ballet play. Nonetheless, immersing into the description of me as a ballet dancer might be interesting to them.<sup>30</sup>

Everything begins with the start of the play. The place of performance is<sup>35</sup> already lighted up, visitors look forward seeing me on the stage. Although I have accomplished my job a lot of times, I can't help worrying. I jump out of the corner and start dancing. I go from one leg to another, spin around, smoothly float with a special accuracy - in<sup>100</sup> this case I am a wave in the ocean.<sup>102</sup> All my body is under pressure, I feel every rapid beat of my heart, muscles ~~cries~~ cry out for relax, but I still have to keep my cool - the only thing people in the audience must see is not my emotions, but<sup>155</sup> my gorgeous dance and thin motions.<sup>163</sup>

When the play is finally over, I almost fall down because of, but I'm free.<sup>162</sup>

Despite the fact that I earn very good money unlike others, I have to ~~do~~ daily visit awful trainings with a very severe coach.<sup>185</sup> (192)

4.1.

I think that the most exciting experience in my trip was visiting a waterfall. The waterfall was really huge with water falling down and the big green forest ahead of it.

This trip gave me unforgettable emotions because of its greatness and feel of magic. When I was standing <sup>50</sup> on the edge of waterfall, I couldn't believe that it was happening to me.

Your trip will be comfortable to you, if you keep these <sup>key</sup> rules: you mustn't go outside the fence even if you want to take some photos; you should take all your trash with you; and <sup>50</sup> you mustn't swim in the waterfall without your guide agree.

Everyone should visit the waterfall even once in life! (1P)

I step on the scene knowing that all people ~~have~~ come in the opera house have come to see my performance. From the first jump to the last plie my life as a famous ballet dancer looks bright and luminous.

When the opera hall is full of people and the orchestra starts playing, my body starts ~~moving~~ moving like an unified instrument. In these moments viewers can't have a clue how many hours it took to do one jump and how many ~~hour~~ injuries I took from one training.

I chose to be a ballet dancer, because it gives me <sup>50</sup> a lot of advantages: I travel a lot, dance in the biggest opera houses, have fans from all over the world. But there are lots of disadvantages, what people don't think about: I can't eat everything I want, long tours mean lonely loneliness, and it's sometimes very hard to be lonely, I <sup>50</sup> also take lots of injuries behind every training.

Actually despite limits and pain, I return to the scene again, because ballet isn't just what I do, it means who I am. (1P)

Part IV. WRITING

Task 4.1

Hello everyone! I would like to share my emotions and some important information with you about a waterfall I have visited last week.

Waterfall located in the village next to main road. I think it is important to say that there are only ten parking zones for your car.

When I arrived I saw a breathtaking view. The sound of falling water amazed me. One thing which was unexpected for me: there are a lot of wild monkeys and no special signs about it, so you have to be careful.

You must keep ~~some~~ some ~~rules~~ rules: smoking and diving are prohibited. This rule is of crucial importance of our nature.

Task 4.2

Ballet life

Being a world-famous ballet dancer means living in a world where extreme grace meets brutal discipline.

When I ~~step~~ step onto the stage, I feel as light as a feather, defying gravity under the spotlight. The roar of a standing ovation is an intoxicating reward that makes every sacrifice worth it.

The main advantage of my career is the ability to express deep emotions through movement and perform in the world's greatest theaters. However, the physical toll is immense: my toes are often bruised and my muscles ache constantly. Most people see the effortless elegance of a performance, but they don't have a clue about the years of grueling practice and the strict lifestyle ~~required~~ required to maintain this level of perfection.

It is a life of soaring highs and hidden pains. Despite the exhaustion, the magic of the stage is a calling I could never abandon. Ballet is a world which consists of many talented dancers, musicians, and also visitors. It is part and parcel of my life. That is all what I want to tell you about my life as a famous ballet dancer.

Task 4.2.

~~NO PAIN, NO GAIN~~ NO PAIN, NO GAIN

Have you ever imagined yourself being a successful ballet dancer? Have you ever wondered about how much dedication and diligence it requires? Or even if you do not have a clue about it, I'm here to tell you.

My journey in ballet dancing started back when I was 2 years old. Ever since then, neglectful to ~~my mother~~ the absence of my wish to attend these classes, my mom forced me to. I always looked at my peers with my eyes filled with jealousy, seeing them ~~be~~ free from such obligatory. Now it's the opposite.

Whenever I'm on stage I feel anxious. Despite a great deal of experience behind my back, I still ~~feel~~ quiver before my performances. Imagine yourself in a diaphanous gown that is as white as a sheet, imagine loud classical music pierce your ears as you're dancing and everyone gazing at you. Then you make the last jump that coincides with the last note of the music and you hear everyone applaud. The feelings after this are just ineffable.

Despite this, there ~~are still~~ still are some disadvantages. Firstly, I'm losing my flexibility. I often get sprains and bone fractures as well. Sometimes I get chastised by people. Nevertheless, all the accolades I receive fulfill my toilsome work and I will never stop loving ballet dancing.

Task 4.2.1.

MIND-BLOWING SENECA FALLS

Having seen Seneca Falls on the internet must have truly touched your soul. But beholding this imposing waterfall in real life is a hundred times more enthralling. Seneca Falls is famous for the Seneca Falls Convention - an event in the suffrage movement. This waterfall is peerless by both its beauty and history.

The scenic view is matchless. Nowhere else could you find such a breathtaking view. People from all over the world come here just to enjoy the scenery. It did enchant me as well. 'Never have I ever seen anything like this,' thought I. It literally lit my soul up.

REVIEW OF EMERALD FALLS

INTRODUCTION

Recently, I've had a golden opportunity to visit Emerald Falls, a natural attraction known for its powerful streams and picturesque sceneries.

SCENIC VIEW

The waterfall charms its visitors with the sound of water flowing down the mountain ~~A tranquil atmosphere~~ and the tranquil atmosphere of merging with the <sup>local</sup> wildlife.

IMPRESSION

This trip made me feel relaxed and delighted as I could finally let my hair down after a stressful month in a city full of hustle and bustle.

RULES FOR VISITORS

Tourist must not leave ~~mark~~ marked paths and keep the area clean. Furthermore, avoiding the edges is also a safety rule.

Overall, Emerald Falls is a spectacular spot for those who have a desire to reconnect with the nature <sup>(41)</sup>

MY LIFE IS A SPOTLIGHT

As I step onto the stage, my mind changes. Although the silence before the orchestra starts to play is familiar to me, a spark of excitement runs through my body. Now, the pointe shoes seem to be the part of my feet, something I was <sup>(50)</sup> born with.

Fame brings color to my life. Dancing leading roles and receiving standing ovations from the audience is an unforgettable feeling. While travelling with various performances, I visited a bunch of countries and met awesome people. It turned my worldview upside down. Every day, while collaborating with the choreographers <sup>(50)</sup> known all ~~around~~ over the globe, I can't believe it is happening to me.

However, a silver lining is not the only thing about the ~~class~~ cloud. What most people do not have a clue about is the flip side of my life. I miss birthdays and hardly ever get a chance <sup>(50)</sup> to spend time with my beloved ones because of constant rehearsals.

Nevertheless, all the shadows of my past failures evaporate as the spotlight falls on me. A desire to be flawless appears to bear fruits as I feel my whole body as a fiddle that can play any sound. To me, dancing is like hearing a divine call and following it. (2)

Majestic Beauty of Serenity falls

My recent trip serenity falls, located just outside the main park entrance, was an absolutely breathing experience. This impressive cascade drops over 50 meters into a crystal-clear pool, making it a must-see natural wonder.

The scenic view upon arrival was stunning. Sunlight filtered through (50) the dense canopy, creating rainbows in the mist rising from the base of the falls.

The sheer power and constant roar of the water were mesmerizing. I felt an overwhelming sense of peace mixed with awe at nature's force. It was truly rejuvenating.

Visitors must adhere strictly to posted guidelines. (50) stay on marked trails, do not feed the local wildlife and ensure all litter is carried out. Respecting these rules helps preserve this pristine environment for everyone.

sp A Truly Magestic Experience at Kaieteur Falls.

My visit to Guyana's Kaieteur Falls was breathtaking. This is one of the planet's most powerful single-drop waterfalls, hidden in the Amazon rainforest.

The view is spectacular: a massive column of water plunges 226 meters into a misty gorge surrounded by pristine jungle. The thunderous roar and rainbows in the spray are awe-inspiring. I felt profound wonder and peace.

Important rules: stay on marked paths and platforms at all times. Swimming is prohibited due to dangerous currents, and you must take all litter back to protect the fragile ecosystem.

For any nature lover, this raw, powerful wonder is an absolute must-see - an unforgettable highlight.  $1+1+1+0+1+1+2+1+1=9$

▶ The Weight of the Spotlight.

My life is a beautiful paradox, lived en pointe. When the curtain rises, I become pure emotion in motion. The stage is my home; the audience, a sea of shared breath. Hearing the collective gasp during a perfect fouette is a reward beyond words. I interpret timeless music through my body, collaborating with world-class artists. My art transcends language, connecting with thousands. I travel the globe, experiencing cultures from the wings of great theaters.

But this life demands a brutal price. Relentless training is my constant companion; a single misstep can mean injury. My body is both my instrument and a source of daily pain. The pressure is immense - I dance for a legacy, a company, an expectant public. Personal sacrifices are endless: holidays and family dinners exchanged for rehearsals. Most people a standing ovation, the silence of a hotel room after the crowd's roar fades.

Yet, when I dance, I am free. The discipline melts away, and on stage, I am a feather caught in the powerful current of music, utterly weightless. That fleeting sensation makes every sacrifice worth it.

Task 4.1

107 Visiting the beautiful waterfall was an unforgettable experience. Our guide was so good, he gave us so many information, explained all history of this place. He also told us about importance of protecting it. Everyone knew about the rules, for example: to stay on marked paths not to litter, avoid loud noises, and respect wildlife.

At the same, I felt like a wild traveler overwhelmed by emotions. The sound of falling water, the fresh air and sunlight reflecting in the mist filled me with peace and admiration. Standing there, I felt connected to nature and realized how important is it to preserve such places for future generations. (57)

Task 4.2

172 Between Applause and Silence ~~whose~~ performances I am a ballet dancer whose performances travel across the world, from grand theatres to legendary stages. When I step onto the stage, the spotlight feels like the sun, and my body becomes an instrument tuned by years of discipline. Every pirouette and grand jeté is part of a silent language through which I speak to the audience. Many people admire the grace, but they not have a clue how much sweat hides behind the velvet curtain. ~~Living as a ballet dancer is like~~

Living ~~like~~ as a ballet dancer is like walking on a tightrope made of dreams and pain. The pros are powerful; applause that feels like a warm wave, synchronization between body and soul. Dancing gives me freedom, even within strict choreography.

Yet there are shadows. Endless rehearsals exhaust the body, injuries threaten careers, and personal life often waits backstage. While others rest, I train, while others sleep I stretch aching muscles.

Still, ballet is my metaphorical heartbeat. Without it, I would lose rhythm. On stage, in my worn shoes, I am alive. (28)

4.1 I recently visited Victoria Falls One of the largest waterfalls in the world located in South Africa, on the border of Zambia and Zimbabwe. This waterfall is well-known for its exciting beauty and powerful flow. The sheer power of the water cascading down from over 100 meters! It's fantastic!

The views are incredible. Standing there I felt a mix of delight and fear as I took in the natural wonder around me.

Visitors must remember and keep some important rules: do not feed wildlife and stay on marked paths, for example.

In the end I want to say that my visit to Victoria Falls was unforgettable experience and I recommend it to those who love nature!

4.2 Title: Behind the ~~stage~~ stage

I'm famous ballet dancer and performing on the world's most prestigious stages, is both thrilling and exhausting. When I step onto the stage, the bright lights warm my skin and the audience's silent feels like a gentle wave pushing me forward. The moment my feet touch the floor, I become one with the music, moving like a leaf caught in a delicate breeze. Every pirouette, every grand jeté, tells a story beyond words.

Success brings incredible advantages. I receive applause from thousands, travel to beautiful cities and work with talented artists. But behind this glory lies a harsh reality. My body is instrument and it demands endless discipline and sacrifice. Injuries are constant threats, and I often feel isolated, missing simple joys others take for granted. Sometimes, I do not have a clue how to balance my demanding schedule.

P. 4.1 Trip Advisor review.

It was my unbelievable tour with my family. I visited a waterfall yesterday. It was located near our house. The view was perfect, so I couldn't believe my eyes. The sky was pink and bright. The sun was rising. There was peace and quite atmosphere. I was surprised and this view made me feel ~~ganges~~ delighted and cheerful. This feelings weren't familiar to me. There were some rules that every visitor must keep. The main rule was not to shout and be quiete. Also you must be polite. You should be careful with wild. In conclusion I would like to say some words about this trip. It was the most amazing trip ~~that~~ that I ever been to. It was a really interesting ~~experience~~ experience. I also would like to visit this waterfall again.

4.2 Essay

My life as a world-famous ballet dancer is a constant ~~but~~ balance between dream and ~~disciplin~~ discipline. The greatest advantage is the profound artist expression. Stepping into the spotlight, hearing the hushed audience, and then feeling their roaring applause after a perfect performance - that is a unique, electrifying joy. I have the privilege of working with brilliant choreographers and bringing timeless stories ~~to~~ to life ~~through~~ through movement.

Yet behind the glamour lies relentless pressure. My body is pushed to its limits daily, after aching from grueling ~~to~~ rehearsals. Injuries are a ~~consta~~ constant threat. Social life and simple pleasures are often sacrificed for strict routines and diets. Honestly, most people don't have a clue about the solitude a physical toll hidden beneath the sparkle of the costume.

Still, when the curtain rises, everything else disappears. The stage is my true home. My body ~~has~~ becomes a feather, carried freely by the music. In those moments, all the sacrifice feels worthwhile. It is a demanding life, but I would choose it again - the chance to dance is worth every challenge.

Part IV. WRITING

TASK 4.1.

My visit to Niagara Falls was truly majestic. The waterfalls are located on the border between the US and Canada, they are one of the world's most beautiful and powerful water sources ever existed.

The stunning view is absolutely majestic. While standing at the observation point, you witness a colossal wall of water streaming down the cliffs. Waterflow also creates permanent rainbow above. The sheer power and constant roar are worth seeing.

It is crucial for every visitor to follow the guides and only use safe paths. Everyone must respect the beautiful nature and keep the environment clear. I highly recommend visiting this place to anyone seeking raw nature.

Task 4.2.

The Dancer's Paradox

The final note fades, the curtain falls, and for a brief moment, I am standing in thunderous <sup>gr</sup> appause. On the world's stage performing feels different and now I am built different, I had no clue that I will end up like this. This is the pinnacle of my art, a moment of pure, unsurpassed magic of stage.

The advantages of my life are as bright as stage ~~stage~~ lights. I experience true joy while dancing.

<sup>P</sup> Dance isn't only about moves and music it is about expressing your life through body, expressing your feelings! Travelling to iconic theatres and receiving recognition, money and fame for years brings a deep admiration of my work.

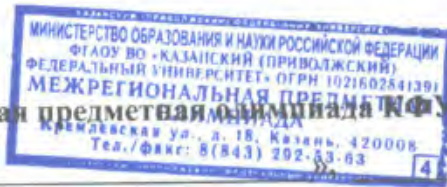

<sup>S</sup> However, it wasn't like this in the beginning, I started as a small background dancer. I barely got paid for pushing my physical possibilities to their limits. It is not debatable that route to the peak is very hard and exhausting. Moreover, you must keep your weight the same! It means I can't even eat an extra steak or jelly donut! I hate this part the most to be honest. There are also some troubles with my fans.

Some of them are quite freaky.

All in all, even though my work seems to have more disadvantages than advantages, I still love it.
The thrilling sound of applause is worth it. Even if I have to sacrifice. I highly recommend you to try it out. For example, try participating in a dancing competition.

4.1.)

Crying baby

The amazing waterfall "Crying Baby" is located in Brazil. The legend tells us about a Queen, who waited with excitement for her baby and lived on a mountain. Her husband passed away in the war, so she had to live alone. But in one day God sent her a handsome boy. The handsome boy was born healthy. He ran and played like other babies. Suddenly, he fell down from a cliff. After that, the waterfall is tears of his mother.

The view is breath-taking. The massive falling of water encourages you to do something. The rules for visitors are simple: don't throw rubbish and be careful. Everyone needs to visit it.

4.2.) Life is a journey

Hi, my name is Bob and I am a ballet dancer. You may know me as the main dancer in the Big Theatre.

Today, I have a usual performance on the stage. I love my job. I was interested in ballet from my childhood. Right now, I'm practicing. I am warming up and doing some easy exercises. Then, I'm going to go on stage. I will have the best performance over the world and my fans will applaud to me. I love my fans too. They always support me.

Sometimes, people ask me "How do you not get tired?" Answer is simple.

As I have said earlier I began dancing from my child's years. So, I am addicted to dancing and don't have a clue how to live without my work and hobby.

Being a popular professional dancer is not only about fame and money. I work hard every day and often my health doesn't really thank to me. I don't have time to create a family. So, maybe I will be alone to my end.

Well, life is a journey. I decided this way and live in happiness.

4.1. Last month I visited Silver Steam Waterfall. It is located in a forest near the city. The walk to the waterfall is easy and very beautiful.

The view is amazing! The water falls from a high rock into a clear blue lake. There are many green trees and flowers around. I felt very happy and peaceful there. The sound of the water was nice and relaxing.

But visitors must remember the rules: do not leave any rubbish, do not swim in the lake, it is dangerous. And always stay on the path to protect the plants.

I recommend this place to everyone. It is perfect for a day in nature!

(112 words)

4.2.

My name is Marianna, and I am a famous ballet dancer. I travel around the world and perform in big theaters. People know my name and ask for my autograph. It is a wonderful feeling.

There are many good things about my job. I see different countries and meet interesting people. I wear beautiful costumes and dance to beautiful music. The best moment is when the audience stands and claps after the show. It makes me feel proud and happy.

But there are bad things too. My body is always tired. My feet hurt every day. I cannot eat much junk food because I must stay thin. I also have no free time - only work, practice and travel. Sometimes I feel lonely in hotel rooms far from home.

Many people watch my dance and think my life is perfect. But they do not have a clue how difficult it really is. Being a ballet dancer is like being a bird in a golden cage - it looks beautiful, but you are not always free.

Still, I love what I do. Dancing is my life, and I will never stop.

4.1. It's TripAdvisor with you again and today I would like to give my review on visiting the Niagara Falls.

As you probably already know, Niagara Falls is one of the world's largest waterfalls. One part of it belongs to Canada and another one to the USA. Incredibly, a few TONS of water drop in three seconds!

The view was stunning even from the picture, but when I saw it in person my jaw dropped. The view of the falling water is hypnotising. But even in this place you need to be careful. Don't come too close to the edge! Hope you will enjoy it!

4.2. ~~As a world-famous~~

As a ~~world-famous~~ world-famous ballet dancer I live between the discipline of the studio and the magic of the stage. When the orchestra tunes and the curtain rises, I feel my body obey years of training. I move across the stage like a flame, controlled yet alive, aware that thousands of eyes follow every step.

The advantages are undeniable. I travel the world, dance iconic roles, and hear applause that seems endless. There is pride in knowing my performances are considered unsurpassed, and joy in sharing art that crosses language and borders. All the pain fades when I land a perfect pirouette and sense the audience holding its breath.

Yet, ~~to~~ success has a darker side. My feet ache, my schedule is relentless and my privacy is rare. People admire me but not have a clue about the sacrifices. Fame can be lonely and that is truly sad.

Still, when I bow under the light, I know I chose the right path. Ballet is not my career - it is who I am.

Sometimes I wish I could spend more time with my family and friends.

3.2. "The ballet in ballerina's eyes."

What the meaning of being a prima ballerina? For me, it's a constant feeling of delight and flying. When I'm on a stage all the eyes are keeping on me permanently. It's giving me a feeling of responsibility but no less joy at the same time. I know that people are here to ~~see~~ ~~watch~~ a look a beauty. And I'm becoming <sup>the</sup> a beauty itself when I'm dancing. My heart is filling with happiness every time I'm seeing how much they're fascinated. My body feels so weightless as if I've never had a clue how hard it's to be a ballet dancer, how much I'm tired after a trainings. I'm feeling such a freedom as if I'm able to dance for eternity. When my pointes are touching the floor I'm turning into a star of the stage. Ballet goes catching every my movement holding their breathe. My favorite performances are these ones which I'm finishing with pirouette. I think it looks so elegant! When I'm leaving the stage the audience is always bursts with the storm of applause.

The waterfall we visiting is hidden in the depth of a huge forest. The scene there is so beautiful! The water is falling from the mountain into a big lake, the trees green colour is perfectly matching with the blue sky, and the sun ~~feels~~ looks so shiny! Everyone who has been in here at least once is completely thrilled with this wonder of nature. And to keep it safe it's important to lead some rules. Firstly, don't forget to clean all your litter before leaving. Secondly, don't harm

Task 3.1. AN INCREDIBLE SIGHT

A few time ago I visited the waterfall. This waterfall is located in Sochi, Russia. To get there, you need to take a long trip, go through mountains and old highways.

After you got there, you will see a beautiful domestic horses and handmade patterned statues. Then you need to go downstairs and you will see an incredible view. The valley with a clean peaceful river surrounded between tall roaring mountains. When I saw this view, I felt absolutely excited.

To conclude, I highly recommend everyone to visit this place. You will have touch with nature and will never forget this view.

Task 3.2. TWO SIDES OF THE SAME COIN

Did you ever think how it is to be a famous ballet dancer? Some people only can see a beautiful illusion of successful life and do not have a clue about the problems behind this life.

To begin with, I would like to tell you about the advantages. My performances on the world stage are unsurpassed and people make me their idol. I can travel around the world and earn money by doing what I love. Moreover, my fans gave me a lot of expensive gifts and I am grateful for them. On the stage I feel like a feather caught in a storm of music.

On the other hand, I always suffer from physical pain and pressure. What is more, popular people always struggle with dangerous insane people, who can stalk them and even try to hurt. This happened to me. One day someone found out my phone number and started to spam me. I did not care about it, until I heard that someone is trying to break my door. Fortunately, the bodyguards of mine stopped this scary man.

In conclusion, the truth is that even dancer's life can be hard and unpleasant. We all have our own life full of advantages and disadvantages.

Part IV. WRITING

Task 4.2

The Dancer's Paradox

pr The final note hangs in the air, then erupts into roaring applause. In these moments, I am transcendent — a bird in human form, my soul taking flight with every leap. The advantage is profound. I speak a universal language of beauty, touching hearts across the globe and living a life dedicated to art. The privilege is incomparable.

lex, gr Yet, behind the curtain, my body is a ledger of pain — each joint as a testament to years of discipline. The relentless pursuit of perfection leaves no room for error on a normal life. While others plan their futures, my world is the studio. About politics and pop-culture? I don't have a clue. My reality is a muscle memory and mirror-lined walls.

The spotlight gives life but also steals it, trading anonymity for acclaim. Every bow is both a triumph and a surrender to a beautiful, exhausting destiny. I am both the feather and the steel that carries it.

TASK 4.1.

Here's my review on the Niagara Waterfall. At first, I would like to mention that this is the biggest waterfall in the world, so my expectations were really high. And my visit blew my mind away!

lex When we came to the waterfall we were absolutely flabbergasted. The scenario was fantastic and especially I liked the sound of the water falling down, it was so soothing. The feeling of being there is undeniably marvelous. But! To not be blown into the waterfall itself, you should follow two main rules. By the way, they are pretty basic:

- 1) Don't stand at the edge of the waterfall
- 2) Don't swim in the waterfall.

lex I am inclined to believe that this is a type of experience which will be evocative in the future and you must have such a memorable visit!

3.1. My Experience of Visiting the Niagara Falls

The most famous waterfall in the world, the Niagara Falls, is located in the USA - one of the most picturesque places on the globe. It's the largest waterfall and it receives more than a million tourists per year. Lucky me, I visited the place a month ago.

Upon your arrival, you'll be struck by the astonishing scene - plenty of trees, birds singing, and a giant stream of water falling from above.

I was amazed by the view - it was such a nice feeling of being so close to nature.

Although, there're some rules you must obey - don't get too close to the waterfall and follow the guide's instructions.

3.2. Being a Ballet Dancer - My Experience

I am a famous ballet dancer, and my performances on stage are unsurpassed, a slightly arrogant assumption, however, I am fully aware of my abilities, and I believe I am one of the greatest ballet dancers nowadays. I am writing this essay with the view to show you the real atmosphere of being a ballet dancer.

Obviously, there's a large number of advantages of having such an occupation. I get so much attention that it is almost unbearable for me, however, I enjoy it so much. Also, it is a very well-paid job.

Yet there are certain disadvantages of being a ballet dancer. Firstly, the amount of pressure I have to endure is a problem - at the end of a performance I feel like I could sleep a year. Secondly, I experience much criticism - a lot of people do not have a clue what it is to be a ballet dancer, they think it is an easy task.

Overall, a ballet dancer is a challenging occupation, it has both advantages and disadvantages, and you should carefully consider each step before making your decision.

4.1. <sup>a</sup> Amazing experience!

Being somewhat close to the city, the waterfall doesn't take too long to get to. A twenty minute ~~and~~ drive and you're welcomed by a stunning scene.

~~But~~ ~~think~~ ~~this~~ ~~view~~

This ~~view~~ ~~is~~ is unbelievable! A tall mountain pouring it's 'tears' in your face, ~~as~~ you hear the water flowing and the birds chirping ~~loudly~~. Close your eyes and breathe in the ~~smell~~ <sup>smell</sup> of fresh air and wet trees. It feels like the embodiment of the word 'freedom'. You can feel it in your bones. ~~The~~ ~~scenery~~ is very ~~very~~ green, as the waterfall's located in a forest, making it the perfect place for nature lovers.

The waterfall is definitely a yes for those who look for a way to feel alive again.

Highly ~~recommend~~ recommend! (18)

4.2. 'PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT'

~~I've never~~ ~~imagined~~ Starting from day one, I knew for sure. I am a dancing machine. Ever since I ~~was~~ <sup>was</sup> a kid, ~~oh~~ how I loved dancing. I always wanted to make my life revolve around ~~be~~ my passion. So I had to make it happen.

I'm going to be dead honest with you. Even though I loved the ~~steady~~ <sup>steady</sup> rhythm of beating in my ears as ~~the~~ my body moves in unison with it (in other words, dancing), I wasn't too good ~~about~~ ~~it~~ at it all the ~~type~~ time. I was never the sportiest kid out there either ~~to~~, having thin legs and arms. Built like a stick. I've decided that instead of sneakers and baggy pants, I'm made for pointe shoes and beautiful dresses. 'How did you manage to reach this level?' you might ask me. Hard work.

4.1. So, I've visited a famous waterfall called Qucon. Its height is 100 metres. It's surrounded by forests and rivers. Cliffs, forests, rivers and lakes are visible from the special place for tourists. The scenic view is gorgeous. It's certainly worth it. The nearby city of Mascawia can be seen if it's fair. When I saw it for the first time, I was gobsmacked by its beauty and atmosphere. By the way, there are some rules all visitors must keep. For example, you're not allowed get close to the edge. Moreover, there are dozens of wild animals and it's forbidden to feed them. Even though it's complicated to reach Qucon, everyone must see and feel it.

4.2. The most famous ballet dancer
My way to the world stage was quite challenging and long. My mother was a ballet teacher. I was nine when she started teaching me ballet. I wasn't pleased with it but kept kept doing it. Then I found something interesting in it. Thanks to my mom who gave me an idea of becoming a ballet dancer.

At the age of eighteen I went to the University of Arts which is the best in dances. From the very beginning everyone was shocked by my movements and sunny smile. Nobody had a clue that I had been studying for many years. I was so excited about it because everything seemed easy for me at university. After graduating I was invited to the capital's theatre. Spectators were applauding to me. My salary was good. However, there was one disadvantage which I have in ballet. After 30 years it has become difficult to perform for a long time. Once I went abroad for a performance and I understood that I have to perform on a much better bigger public. Just after it I got an invite for a world festival. It was my dream. People from almost all countries were shocked by my performance.

I'm happy that I'm a ballet dancer. I can't imagine myself as not a dancer.

3.1. Today I want to <sup>tell</sup> talk you about a waterfall in Karelia. It's in The National Mountain Park. If you want to see this art of nature, you ~~need~~ may rent a boat and floating alone ~~of~~ or with your friends.

Firstly you should go through the cave. There is dark and cold. Then you will see an awesome view. The waterfall started ~~in~~ from the top of ~~the~~ the high mountain and falling to the big blue lake. This lake made an illusion of an ideal round form. ~~When~~ I have been here last ~~month~~ week. I <sup>really</sup> felt excited! I was really excited! This place is a wonderful inspiration for artists and poets.

In conclusion I can say that every people must visit this place in Karelia.

3.2. The price of a ballet fame.

I want to tell you about my extraordinary profession, its advantages and disadvantages. I am a ballet dancer. This is a beautiful and hard work. If you want to become a ballerine, you must start in your childhood.

The certain rises and I am not me anymore. I must be my character, to be in the spotlight and always smile. Even if you feel bad, the show must go on. I remember that once I broke my leg right on the stage. That was too hurt but I still dancing. Your health is the biggest sacrifice.

Obviously, there are a lot of advantages. Firstly, you are always in the spotlight. People often give you gifts, flowers and your portraits. The important thing is the money, that you receive from performances. Unfortunately, there is not stability in this career. One day you can eat in the restaurant, other day - you are starving. As for me, money is not very significant thing. I appreciate my fans and their emotions.

To conclude I want to say that ballet is a profession for strong and motivated people. There are big beautiful wings, but they ~~have~~ are heavy.

4. Luminous Falls is located in the Green Valley National Park, about two hours from the city. The waterfall is over 50 meters high and the sound of the crashing water is both powerful and peaceful. The view is breathtaking. You see the white water falling into a clear blue pool, surrounded by tall green trees and colourful wildflowers. I felt amazed and completely relaxed. It's a perfect to forget your worries. Every visitor must keep to the marked paths for safety. Swimming is not allowed near the waterfall due to strong currents. Also, please take all your rubbish with you to protect this beautiful place. Remember, loud music is prohibited to not disturb the wildlife and other visitors.

If you love nature, you must visit Luminous Falls! As a world-renowned ballet dancer, my life is a blend of magic and immense pressure. When I step onto the stage of the Royal Opera House, the bright lights make me feel like a bird taking flight for the first time. The moment the music starts, I'm no longer myself. I become a character, moving with a grace that makes the audience hold its breath. The advantages of this life are incredible. I travel to famous theaters worldwide, receive standing ovations, and work with brilliant choreographers. The feeling of mastering a difficult move after weeks of practice is pure joy. However, the disadvantages are always present. My body is in constant pain from daily, grueling rehearsals. There is no private life, every mistake is public. The pressure to stay perfect is exhausting sometimes, about the future after dance, I don't have a clue. Will my knees hold? What will I do when I can no longer perform?

This life is a beautiful, demanding art. It gives you wings but also chains you to an endless pursuit of perfection.

Task 3.1.

This summer I visited a beautiful waterfall that my friend recommended. It was the best experience. The waterfall was surrounded by big green trees and flower bushes, and the rushing water added to this landscape a wonderful melody. When I went down to the end of the waterfall, that was an intense river, I saw a little rainbow there. Everybody were really excited.

At the exit you must read the main rules before you visit the waterfall park. The first ~~one~~ <sup>and the only</sup> most important one is NOT to go down to the waterfall without an instructor. It can be dangerous because you can slip on wet stones.

~~It is not recommended to put your hands in the water because of streams.~~
I highly recommend to go there.

Task 3.2.

I've been into ballet since I was four. My mom and I were watching TV on Christmas and making presents for a family and there was "The Swan Lake" on the screen. While watching it I felt that I need to try the same and started to jump across the room. Mom chuckled and clapped for me. ~~and I didn't know~~ I hadn't had a clue that ballet would become the second home for me because I went on ballet courses.

Although, ballet is a sport, it can give you problems too. The advantages of my hobby and career is strong muscles, toned body and beauty of moves. I feel like I'm a bird flying in the sky. But the pay for these skills costs the same. Since my childhood I had so many strict diets so I have health problems now. Adding to them, I always hurt my legs and toes and sometimes they start bleeding.

But all of these things could never make me hate ballet. My life had started by dancing and will end by it too. I like the magic of acting while moving like a princess or a fairy. Remember: dreams come true.

REVIEW OF THE CRYSTAL WATERFALL

INTRODUCTION

Recently I've visited the magnificent Crystal Waterfall and was amazed by its magnificence. Its highest point was situated on a picturesque mountain with ~~a~~ <sup>facilities</sup> ~~some~~ souvenir market nearby.

SCENIC VIEW

The view of the vast terrains was ethereal, especially during the sunset. The blend of warm-toned colors of the <sup>sky</sup> sky was reflected by the water, crafting a perfect background for pictures.

FEELINGS

While standing there, you feel the power with which the strong stream hits the shallow water. This put me on cloud nine.

RULES

To ensure safety, the staff <sup>carefully</sup> watches over the visitors. No one is allowed to walk up to the stream or get near the cliff. (50)

IMPRESSION

I would ~~&~~ recommend visiting this waterfall to anyone who values aesthetics and enjoys the nature's riches. (22)

4.2 THE LIFE IN THE SPOTLIGHT

I stand behind the curtain in the starting position, trying to fight the exhaustion and look as fresh as a daisy. Once the first spotlight hits my eye and I hear the pitched note of the violin, I don't have to pretend anymore.

Dancing has been my greatest passion <sup>since</sup> childhood, so seeing my dreams come true on this stage puts me on cloud nine. Nothing beats the recognition you get for your efforts from the audience. Even after a long day, a child's delighted expression can lighten my mood and make me glow with joy.

Still, the main advantages are not the fame or countless gifts, but the ability to meet likeminded individuals and inspire others. I am eternally grateful to my job for <sup>meeting my</sup> ~~giving me~~ friends and mentors, who help me get through thick and thin.

However, <sup>this career</sup> the job is not as perfect as it seems. The admirers do not have a clue about how much effort and endurance professional ballet requires. Some leave the industry due to tight schedules or severe injuries.

Overall, my next mission is to shed light on the courage and strength ballerinas have possess and to reinforce the beauty of this art of dancing to every walk of life.

I couldn't wait to write this review after an unforgettable visit to a breathtaking waterfall, located in the dense forest of Canada.

The view was simply mesmerizing, with screams of water running down the rocks, surrounded by lush greenery. It was truly a sight for the eyes and I felt over the moon. The sound of the rushing water was like a music for my ears, creating a serene atmosphere that made all my ~~work~~ worries fade away.

However, it's important for visitors to remember a few rules: stay behind the safety fence to avoid unnecessary risk and no use of flash photography to protect local wildlife. All in all, it was like a dream come true. ~3.2

When it reaches the stage, spotlights seem so warm and bright, illuminating when I am dancing. In this moment, I can see the lighted faces of the jury and can feel their emotions. My name is Ekaterina Valerua, I am famous ballet dancer from Saint-Petersburg, Mariinsky theatre, known for my brain-boggling performances. I don't know what can compare with amazing grand-jeté or any ballet movement.

However, I must also of train, what can be exhausted and after work I can feel tired physically and mentally. I have a moment, when I jump my abilities but because sometimes I just have a hard time to make any ballet movement, but I overcome this problem and difficulties with my ballet teammates, that bring for me like a family.

And then I heard a proposal of visitors to the art, I think what is truly more key for emotions of people. It's a reason why I really love ballet, ballet make me happy, such as a girl and help me understand and win in my life.

Part IV. WRITING

Task 1. I would like to recommend you to visit "The John's Waterfall". Right now I am standing in front of it. The waterfall is an amazing natural masterpiece. I can see a big amount of water, that falls is falling from the top of a high mountain, into "The Small Lake". This lake is located between two green forests. Trees in these forests are very high and fresh. Lex

This place is available to all tourists. However, you should follow some rules. First of all, you mustn't go too close to the waterfall. It is very dangerous. Secondly, you mustn't bring any animals to this territory. Finally, you must always follow your instructor. (110 words)

Task B.2. My difficult life. P

I am a very famous ballet dancer and lots of journalists asked me about my experience. Well, I always have to fight my tears of performing in front of public. Can you ever imagine yourselves training every day for at least ten hours and eating only two meals a day?

Before any of my performances I have a panic attack, I think that I forget anything. It is very hard and exhausting. However, when I ~~you~~ come out on stage, you can feel people's love and enjoyment.

I've ~~the~~ always wanted to be a ballerina. My parents believed in me. They found me a professional trainer. My first performances were very funny and a bit childish: I danced a snow princess in a beautiful dress. Sometimes I thought that I do not have a choice, but my parents always helped me. ~~My life was moving~~ Sometimes I wanted to drop ballet, but my teacher insisted to continue. She was as shy as a fox and she always ~~do~~ made me love ballet again.

If you start to dance ballet, you ~~are~~ dive in it with your head. Even though ballet has its advantages and disadvantages I love it very much. 135

Part IV. WRITING

Task 4.1.

Today I'd like to recommend you the HighFlow Waterfall I've recently visited. It's located on the south of Russia in the verdant mountains on the coast of the Black Sea.

The main body of the waterfall is covered by trees' canopy, but on its top there's an absolutely fantastic view. A calm azure sea, a waterfall with intactly clear water rapidly falling down - oh, all these picturesque sights definitely took my breath away!

However, there're some rules every visitor must follow: no coming close to the edge of the waterfall and no throwing of rubbish around. This way, the experience will be safe and pleasant for you and all of the people around.

Task 4.2.

~~What~~ WHAT IS IT LIKE TO BE A BALLET DANCER?

What does being a world-class ballet dancer feel like? I imagine ordinary people might think it's all about grace and aesthetics, while, in fact, such people probably ~~have~~ do not have a clue about what difficulties as ballet dancers encounter regularly on our path to flying like a butterfly on stage.

My usual day starts and finishes with training. It's not just ballet itself: stretching, aerobics, power and stamina trainings are all essential for becoming a good ballet dancer. I should also say that constant blisters due to the tight shoes aren't a myth, but a reality for me.

Nonetheless, despite all the hardships, I still love my job. It was my childhood dream and I can safely say I've never regretted devoting my life to ballet. There're so many things I love about it: from the gratification you feel after successfully completing a hard element and the applaudes ~~from~~ you get from the delighted audience to the diversity of places you all around the world you visit during a tour trip.

All in all, I definitely adore my job, but I would greatly appreciate it if the public had less illusions about professional ballet.

3.1 The ~~GAA~~ Grand Canyon Waterfall
The Grand Canyon waterfall is an enormous stream of water rushing down from the sides of the canyon towards the ground. It's height is around 300 metres, while it's speed can reach up to 50 km/h towards the end of the fall. Every year ~~hundreds~~ of ~~thousands~~ of tourists rush to America to ~~gaze upon the~~ ~~incredible Grand Canyon waterfall~~. And it is a worthwhile site.

~~The Grand Canyon waterfall offers an amazing view to anyone visiting it. The falling water creates the perfect conditions for a rainbow to occur, which happens extremely often. The beautiful glow of this wonderful act of nature, however, is always contrasted by the violent splashes of the water below. I always feel amazed by such a sight.~~

If you wish to visit the waterfall, there are <sup>only one</sup> ~~undentable~~ rules you must follow. First, you cannot come closer than 50 metres. ~~Second, you cannot take photos other than that, have fun.~~ If you follow these rules, you will be able to visit the waterfall next year. I hope you do.

My life as a ballet dancer

I start off my day by cooking myself some breakfast and putting on a lot of makeup. This is one of the days that a performance takes place. I put on my shoes, ~~my coat as expensive as a car and~~ take my ballet shoes. <sup>In days such as these</sup> ~~Today,~~ hundreds of eyes will stare at my dancing, judging every move and every delay.

Being famous comes with many drawbacks. I cannot leave my house without a pack of paparazzi swarming me from all sides. Many of my friends are ~~also~~ constantly asking me for money or a meeting with a celebrity they like. I, of course, tell them off. Sometimes, my contractor drags me to the important cultural events, like meetings with politicians. I do not even have a clue what they are talking about.

However, the advantages are <sup>much</sup> ~~even~~ <sup>stronger</sup> better than drawbacks. First, I get paid more than some famous football players. Second, I can meet with any celebrity

Located in the Hohe Tauern National Park, the Krimmler Waterfalls are Austria's highest, cascading down 380 meters in three tiers. The scenic is breathtaking. The water thunders down rugged cliffs, surrounded by lush green alpine meadows and dense forest. A constant, refreshing mist fills the air, often creating beautiful rainbows in the sunlight. I felt a profound sense of awe and peace, completely captivated by nature's raw power and beauty. However, visitors must keep important rules: stay on the marked paths for safety and to protect the fragile ecosystem, do not litter, and avoid climbing on the rocks. Respecting these ensures the waterfall remains pristine for everyone. A truly unforgettable experience!

The Price of Perfection.

The curtain rises, and the hush of the audience is a palpable thing, like a physical one I must push myself through with a first step. This is my world: the blinding lights, the orchestra's swell, the world's most prestigious stages beneath my pointed shoes. The advantage is this pure, wordless communication, transcending language to tell stories with my body. I am an artist in its most direct form, celebrated from Paris to Moscow. Yet, the silence after is deafening. The public sees the grace, but they do not have a clue about the cost. My body is a map of chronic pain - a sprained ankle, a screaming lower back. The relentless discipline is isolating: there are no casual dinners, no spontaneous holidays. My personal life exists in the shadows of rehearsal schedules. The fear of injury is a constant companion, the pressure to remain unsurpassed, a crushing weight. Every ovation is a testament not just to talent, but to sacrifice. The stage gives me a voice, but it demands my entire life in return. Is it worth it? In the heart of the spotlight, breathless and alive, I know it is.

Yesterday I visited the Niagara Falls and it was absolutely breathtaking! This waterfall is located on the border between Canada and New York. I would like to describe my feelings.

The landscape I saw was amazingly beautiful: surrounding greenery created a truly magical atmosphere. The mist was refreshing and the thunder of water was very loud. It felt like I was in a fairy tale and I wanted to dive in the water like a mermaid, but the <sup>rules</sup> ~~rules~~ said that every visitor should stand on the road and only with a guide.

All in all, I strongly recommend visiting Niagara Falls. This trip is worth buying expensive tickets because the feelings ~~after~~ seeing the waterfall are incredible!

~~Life In The Theatre~~

Life In The Theatre

There are so many girls who dream of becoming a ballet dancer, but little do they know about this hard and severe job. I am a successful ballet dancer and I would like to describe my ~~life~~ life.

gr People think it is easy to stand on one leg and spin, but they ~~do not~~ do not have a clue in how much we work for it. Ballet dancers go to a dance academy as little kids and spend every day standing on their toes and spinning. We have neither happy childhood nor calm life as we always work under pressure. We have no chance but to dance without mistakes, otherwise we will be kicked out forever.

However, there are some advantages of being a successful ballet dancer. Due to my experience I do not suffer from stress before my performances and my mind is ~~not~~ not a sponge. Furthermore, I truly love dancing and I can not imagine my life without ballet. Every time I step on the stage I feel that I am where I ~~should~~ should be.

To sum up, this job is not for weak people in both moral and physical ways. I wish good luck to every young ballet dancer!

TASK 4.1  $5+1+2+1+0=9$

My visit to Slogafoss in southern Iceland was unforgettable. This mighty waterfall, one of the country's largest, plunges 60 meters into a serene pool below.

This view is absolutely stunning. A permanent rainbow often dances in the mist, creating a magical atmosphere. The thunderous sound of the water is both powerful and calming. Standing close to the base, feeling the spray on my face, I was filled with awe and a deep sense of peace.

Important rules for visitors: stay on the marked paths, as the rocks are extremely slippery. Do not climb on the fragile surrounding moss or try to swim in the pool for your own safety. Respecting these rules helps preserve this natural wonder.

I highly recommend this majestic site for an incredible and humbling experience.

TASK 4.2.

The moment I step onto the stage, the world shrinks to the circle of light following my every move. My body becomes an instrument, transating music into motion so fluid it feels like flying. The applause that follows is a thunderous wave, a reward for years of grueling work. This is the pinnacle of my art, and the advantages are profound. I travel the world, perform in historic theatres, and collaborate with brilliant choreographers.

There's an indescribable joy in perfecting a difficult variation and feeling the audience's breathless silence.

Yet, this life exists on a knife's edge. My daily reality is one of constant physical sacrifice. Hours at the barre leave my feet battered and my muscles screaming. The pressure to maintain flawless technique is immense, and the fear of injury is a permanent shadow. There is a deep solitude to this dedication, while others socialize, I am resting or conditioning.

My pre-performance focus is as fragile as blown-glass, easily shattered by a single doubt. Most people don't have a clue about the relentless discipline behind the glittering costumes. The greatest disadvantage is the feeling nature of it all. A dancer's career is ~~the~~ ~~that~~ ~~what~~ ~~it~~ ~~is~~ a brilliant, but tragically short flame.

Ich verliebte mich sofort in sie. Sie sagte, dass mein Fuß nicht gebrochen war. Wie schade! Ich sollte nur zwei Tage im Krankenhaus sein.

Schon zu Hause dachte ich, dass ich sie nie wiedersehen kann. Ich war so enttäuscht! Was konnte ich nicht ahnen, dass zwei Wochen später, als ich ins Lieblingscafé <sup>sah</sup> ~~sitze~~, begegnete ich ihr. Sie erkannte mich und wir gehen heute Abend ins Kino.

Part IV. WRITING

3.1 I recently visited Tumpak Sewu Waterfall in East Java, often called the "Thousand Waterfalls" due to its curtain-like appearance. Standing at approximately 100 meters tall, it is a breathtaking natural wonder fed by the glacial meltwater of Mount Semera.

The scenic view is truly ethereal; watching the water cascade down lush, moss-covered cliffs into a misty ravine felt like stepping into a prehistoric world. I felt a profound sense of peace and awe standing before such raw power.

To preserve this beauty, visitors must follow strict rules: stay on marked paths, dispose of all trash in designated bins, and avoid swimming in restricted high-current zones. It is a must-visit for any nature lover.

3.2 The weight of the spotlight

Standing in the wings of the Palais Garnier, my breath is a rhythmic tide against the silence. As a premier danseur, the stage is my kingdom, and the hush of the audience is the ultimate tribute to my craft. When I leap, I feel as though I am a bird caught in a momentary defiance of gravity, suspended by nothing but sheer will and years of agonizing discipline.

The advantages of this life are intoxicating. I experience the transcendence of artistic perfection and receive standing ovations in every major capital. My body is a finely tuned instrument, capable of expressing emotions that words cannot capture. However, the disadvantages are etched into my very bones. My toes are a map of scars, and my social life is nonexistent. Behind the shimmering costumes lies a grueling routine of ice baths and constant pain.

To the spectators, the elegance seems effortless; they do not have a clue about the relentless fatigue that shadows every performance. Yet, despite the physical toll and the isolation of fame, the moment the curtain rises and I merge with the disappears. For those few hours, the sacrifice is a small price for unsurpassed brilliance.
