Europe Natural Features

Europe is one of the seven continents. The other ones are North America, South America, Africa, Asia, Australia, and Antarctica. A continent is a group of countries in the same area of the planet. Countries in Europe include the United Kingdom, France, Holland, and many others. All over Europe there are plenty of examples of human and physical landmarks. Some of the most famous physical landmarks are mentioned below.

Mighty Mountains

In Greek mythology, Mount Olympus was the home of the gods and the throne of Zeus, the head god. It is the highest mountain in Greece, reaching 2,917 metres tall. You can usually see the mountain covered in snow for seven months every year between November and May, the wettest season. The rain is caused by a thick blanket of clouds that cover part of the mountain.

Violent Volcano

Mount Vesuvius is an active volcano found in Italy, only nine miles from the city of Naples. It has erupted many times, most recently in 1944. The most violent eruption recorded happened in 79 A.D. killing thousands of people and completely burying the nearby cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum.

Raging Rhine

The Rhine is one of the longest and most important rivers in Europe. It is over 1,232 km long. Its source is in Switzerland and continues to flow through six countries in total before exiting into the North Sea. The river has been used for trade for many years, even as far back as the Roman era over 2,000 years ago. The river is still used for transporting goods today, and many towns have been built along the river to support the many businesses.

Task 1.3. Read the story. Fill in each gap (12-25) with ONE word only. Write your answers on the answer sheet.

Once upon a time, in a small village, there was a young boy (12) <sup>n</sup> named Sam. Sam was not very big, but he had a big heart. He loved to help people in his village. One day, Sam heard a strange noise + in the forest (13) near his home. Everybody in the village was afraid (14) to..... go into the forest, because they thought (15) there was a big, scary monster living there.

But Sam was curious. He wanted to see (16) what... was making the noise. So, he decided to be brave and go into the forest. He took a small lantern and some bread with him. As he walked (17) through the forest, he saw tall trees and heard birds singing. But he also heard the loud noise again. It sounded (18) like... someone was crying.

Sam followed the sound and soon found a big, furry bear. The bear was not scary at all. In fact, it was stuck! Its paw was (19) stuck in a trap. Sam knew he had to help. At first, Sam was a little scared, but he remembered how much he wanted to help. Carefully, he opened the trap and freed the bear. The bear looked at Sam (20) with kind eyes. It seemed to say thank you.

When Sam returned to the village, everyone was surprised. They could (21) not believe that the loud noise in the forest (22) was from a bear that needed help. The villagers were proud (23) of Sam. They learned that sometimes things are not as scary (24) as they seem. Sam showed everyone that being brave means helping others, even if you are a little scared.

From that day (25) on, Sam became a hero in his village. The people remembered his bravery and learned that sometimes being small doesn't mean you can't be brave.

The (1) United Kingdom is filled with many curious facts and interesting places. One of the most famous landmarks is (2) Stonehenge, which is a prehistoric monument located in the English countryside. It is a ring of massive stones and has been around for thousands of years, leaving many people puzzled about its true purpose.

In London, you can find many exciting attractions. For example, (3) Big Ben is not the name of the clock tower itself, but of the bell inside it. Nearby, (4) London Eye is a popular place for tourists; it is named in honour of a British naval victory.

(5) Stonehenge is the river that flows through London, providing beautiful views and a chance for boat tours. If you want an incredible view of the city, the (6) The Shard is a giant Ferris wheel on the South Bank of the river. It's a great spot to see the city from above.

London Zoo is another fascinating place. It's one of the oldest (7) scientific zoos in the world and home to many exotic animals. You might even meet a (8) Bull Terrier there, a pet often associated with Britain. And speaking of animals, have you heard of (9) Pardner? He's a bear from the famous children's books who loves marmalade sandwiches and adventures around London.

The UK also has a rich history of kings and queens that visitors often explore through its many castles and palaces. All in all, the UK offers a lot to see and learn, from its ancient (10) monuments to its bustling modern capital.

Part 4. WRITING. Maximum: 20 points.

Write a story about a pink frog.

Make your story interesting to read.

Remember to write the introduction (вступление) and the conclusion (заключение).

Write a story. Write 90-150 words.

One time when i was walking by a river, i saw a swarm of many frogs near a tree. I came closer to the frogs, and they were making loud sounds because of how much of them there were. I walked around the tree to see if there are more, and i spotted a pink frog among the normal ones. because of the color difference i thought it was a poisonous frog, so i didnt get close to it. I took some pictures of the frogs and sent the images to my parents and friends. I then tried to search if the pink frog was dangerous, but by that time all the frogs ran away with pink in the lead, and ran to a forest. I later at home found out that the pink frog was the leader and poisonous.
